Arrive Barcelona, Spain - Tour Begins

Welcome to Barcelona, Spain's second largest city and capital of the Catalunya province. Barcelona is a major economic center and is recognized as a global city because of its importance in finance, commerce, media, entertainment, arts and international trade. Tonight, enjoy a welcome dinner. Today dinner will be included.

Day 3: Saturday, November 13, 2010

Barcelona

Get an in-depth look at Barcelona, one of the most vibrant and lively cities in Spain! Your locally guided tour showcases Las Ramblas Boulevard, the most famous in Barcelona, dotted with bird and flower stalls. Also see Columbus Monument; Parc Montjuic; Antonio Gaudi's UNESCO World Heritage sites including "La Sagrada Familia," Parc Guell, Bartlo House and the unconventional Casa Mila building. This afternoon continue to explore colorful Barcelona on your own. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 4: Sunday, November 14, 2010

Barcelona

Today is at leisure for you to independently explore the sights and sounds of this beautiful city. Barcelona has a great number of museums which cover different areas and eras that you may wish to explore. The National Museum of Art of Catalonia possesses a well-known collection of Romanesque art. The Fundació Joan Miró, Picasso Museum and Fundació Antoni Tàpies hold important collections of these world-renowned artists. If you like, take a leisurely stroll on Las Ramblas Boulevard or explore the buildings and alleyways of the city's historic gothic quarter. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 5: Monday, November 15, 2010

Barcelona - Madrid

After a leisurely breakfast, your Tour Manager provides a brief introduction on the origin and history of the Spanish language. Next, travel the modern highways and picturesque landscapes of Catalunya and Castilla Leon to Madrid, Spain's capital and largest city with a population of 3.5 million people. While Madrid possesses a modern infrastructure, it has preserved the look and feel of many of its historic neighborhoods and streets. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 6: Tuesday, November 16, 2010

Madrid - Prado Museum

During a locally guided tour of Madrid's historic center, see the Puerta del Sol and Plaza Mayor, where events have been held since the 17th century. You will also see beautiful Paseo Castellano, Gran Via and Plaza de Espana. Next, a guided tour of the Prado Museum, open since 1819, provides you with an historical and cultural perspective of this magnificent museum that boasts the world's finest collection of art by masters such as Velazquez and Goya. Later you will have the opportunity to interact with the locals to learn how business is conducted in Spain. The remainder of the day is at leisure for you to explore the huge Royal Palace or the Royal Theatre with its restored 1850 Opera House. The Reina Sofia and the Thyssen-Bornemisza museums are also very popular with visitors. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 7: Wednesday, November 17, 2010

Madrid

Today is at leisure for you to relax and explore fascinating Madrid, “the city that never sleeps.” If it interests you, an optional excursion is available to visit Toledo, a UNESCO site and the capital of medieval Spain until 1560. A comprehensive tour highlights the magnificent Gothic cathedral and the 13th century synagogue, a testament to Toledo’s Jewish heritage. Also stop in the Church of Santo Tome to view El Greco’s masterpiece painting, The Burial of Count Orgaz. This evening join your fellow travelers for a farewell dinner celebrating the end of a wonderful trip. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 8: Thursday, November 18, 2010

Madrid - Tour Ends

Return home with vivid memories of two of Europe’s most beautiful and exciting cities with old, rich and diverse cultural heritages. Today breakfast will be included.
